Jennings Lottie, fifteen-year-old wolf shifter, and her sixteen-year-old human roommate share a small, secluded cabin in the woods. On their first night, Lottie moves in and moves in with her biker neighbor. Her wolf senses are screaming, "Run!" but she can't. Jack is a man of his word - and a man of his body. He makes her sit on the edge of the bed. Then he kneels between her knees and tells her he loves her, too. Suddenly, there is no place else in the world she would rather be. And she can't deny her wolf. Determined to stay in Jack's life, Lottie must live with two opposing emotions at once. Torn between what she wants and what she needs, she discovers that Jack is a man who makes her need even more. One secret leads to another, and eventually Lottie must decide what she wants more: a relationship or freedom. New Adult and Young Adult contemporary romances, including a handful of New York Times bestsellers. Shannon D. Jennings has spent the last seven years in New Mexico, Colorado, Montana, and New York. Shannon is married and has three daughters. Lottie's Wolf is her debut. I saw this when I was checking out Smashwords new releases. I'm always excited to learn about new authors! I love a little paranormal with a touch of humor. It's always a good combination to me. Thanks for the post, and for sharing your interview. :) I'm sure you know that Smashwords has a contest for the top 20 authors in each category. There's a link in my side bar. Take a look at yours and the others :)Q: What is behind the invocation of `dlopen()` in the dyld shared library?
